WEEKLY LESSONS

There are two pages to accompany each week’s lesson in the Grow in Love Children’s Book from Junior Infants/P1 to Second Class/P4. These activity books are designed to engage both children and their families. Each week, it is intended that one page in the Children’s Book be worked on in school and the second page at home. In Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Class, the Children’s Books are in textbook format. In Third and Fourth Class, there are three pages each week: two pages for school and one for home. In Fifth and Sixth Class, there are four pages each week: three pages for school and one for home. Activities are designed to reinforce learning and to engage children and their families.

WORK AT HOME

We strongly believe that if we want families to be involved in their children’s religious education, we have to give them concrete opportunities to engage in suitable activities together. By sending home a piece of work, a prayer, a Bible story, something to read together and a topic to chat about each week, we are communicating to parents and families that their role in their child’s religious education is vital from the very first day their child starts in a Catholic school.

IN THE PARISH

Connecting Home, School and Parish

New Resources for First Holy Communion

Grow in Love has always sought to build links between home and school. Parents have been engaging with their children by using the 'At Home' page in the Grow in Love textbooks. The 'At Home' page provides a prayer, a piece of work for parents and children to do together and something to chat about each week, all linked with what the children are doing in school.

Children and their families are also part of a much wider community of faith: the parish community. Grow in Love: In the Parish is an attempt to facilitate the partnership between home, school and parish. Grow in Love: In the Parish encourages parents and children to come together in the parish setting during the children's First Communion year, along with the parish community, to continue the preparation that is taking place in schools.

IT HAS THREE ELEMENTS

1. A series of liturgically based initiatives

The aim of these is to help families with young children to feel a greater sense of belonging to the parish community, and to find their place in the ordinary Sunday Mass, both in the year of sacramental preparation and beyond.

2. A series of newsletters

The newsletters, which link with the school-based Grow in Love programme, are distributed on a monthly basis to families. Ideally, this should be done in a parish context – for example, at a monthly family Mass.

3. Speaking notes

Each month, speaking notes are offered for the priest, together with a sample Prayer of the Faithful. The speaking notes draw attention to the key features of the newsletter for that month, and the Prayer of the Faithful picks up on the theme for that month.

The sacraments are events in the life of the Christian community, not just in the life of the individual. Parish communities will therefore benefit from sharing in the sacramental preparation and celebration with home and school.

We hope these newsletters will be a source of information and inspiration to parents/guardians, and will serve to strengthen the engagement of children and their families in the life of the Church.

ELIZABETH MILLS

This informative and enlightening prayer guide for children offers a fresh perspective on the familiar words of Our Lord's Prayer. Through clear and simple language, it leads children to consider what God is saying to us through each line of the prayer and what that means for us in our daily lives. It encourages an imaginative and open-hearted approach to faith that will support children in their future faith development.

THE COUNCIL FOR CATECHETICS OF THE IRISH EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE

While the majority of Catholic parents choose a Catholic primary school for their children, a significant number of families, for a variety of reasons, send their children to schools that are not under Catholic patronage. Children who attend non-Catholic schools do not receive formal religious education during the school day and so the local parish must take responsibility for supporting their parents in nourishing and developing the faith formation and catechesis of their children.

Starchaser

JACINTHA MULLINS

Starchaser is a children's picture book that aims to support children who are experiencing grief, whether it be from the loss of a pet, parent, grandparent, sibling or friend. Death pops in and out of life and sometimes quite unexpectedly. Regardless of our age or life experience, we are never quite ready for its appearance.

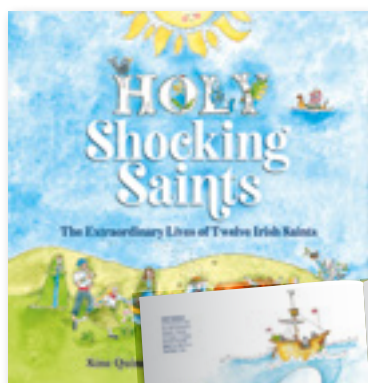

The Starchaser comes from a magical place at the other side of the sky called the Big Beyond. She travels in the trails of the night's falling stars to reach earth. Leaving earth is not easy for those who have to go, or indeed for those who are left behind, but the Starchaser has a few tricks up her sleeve to help us with all that.

9781800970045 | €12.99/£11.75

'Starchaser's travels through the sky offer a child a sense of being held by something greater and bigger than their loss. The book gently concludes that life goes on, and their loved ones will live on in their memories. This is a beautiful book which is sure to provide comfort and hope to children who have experienced bereavement. It is a wonderful resource for teachers, therapists and families to help children navigate their unique and individual grief journey.'

Laudato Si'

POPE FRANCIS

Considered both a powerful and controversial document, in Laudato Si', Pope Francis urges people to work in solidarity to reduce the impact of climate change, which he claims is partly due to human activity. He denounces the destruction of the earth's natural resources by the rich and powerful (both economically and politically) as 'sinful' and states that developed nations are morally obligated to assist developing nations in combating the climate-change crisis.

Laudato Si', mi' Signore – Praise be to you, my Lord.

The Cry Of The Earth – The Cry Of The Poor

The Climate Catastrophe – Creation's Urgent Call for Change

ARCHBISHOP DERMOT FARRELL

In our age we are confronted with two interconnected crises: the coronavirus pandemic and the ecological crisis. Both require urgent action, but they also require a sense of purpose which comes from a clear vision.

This pastoral letter is not an attempt to replace what scientists, civic leaders or various climate movements are saying, but instead seeks to engage a further dimension, and approaches the climate catastrophe from the conviction of faith: this means facing the crisis with a deep sense of reality and a profound sense of hope. 'Faith is not a light which scatters all our darkness, but a lamp which guides our steps in the night and suffices for the journey' (Lumen Fidei, 57).
