VERITAS

WELCOME TO THE VERITAS EDUCATION CATALOGUE 2021

This catalogue contains information about our entire range of educational resources. Our two dedicated sections for primary and post-primary schools showcase many wonderful products to support the work of religious educators, including innovative digital resources for you to use in the classroom. To support teachers efforts to promote school ethos, we also have a wide range of religious items for your classroom.

We are very thankful to all of the teachers who are using Grow in Love in their classrooms. There are thousands of teachers using our Grow in Love website every day and if you need help with accessing the additional online resources get in touch with our Help Desk and we'll be happy to help.

For post-primary schools, this year we have published our complete three-year edition of Soul Seekers for Junior Cycle Religious Education written in consultation with teachers from across the country. The series, with an accompanying website, is specially written to the NCCA specification, inclusive of diverse faith traditions and supports school ethos and vision.

Veritas is committed to providing the best possible catechetical resources for schools, working with a dedicated team of experienced teachers. We are conscious of the need to provide up-to-date materials, and we look forward to continuing to work in partnership with teachers, parents and students to meet the needs of religious educators and school children.

Please enjoy browsing the catalogue and visit www.veritas.ie to see more of our fantastic books. Don't forget: schools can avail of a discount of up to 15% on all orders placed with Veritas stores and online.

And do keep in touch with any feedback you have for us – we'd love to hear from you!

Grow in Love is an exciting religious education series from Veritas, used in Catholic primary schools. It is now available at all class levels. Grow in Love is based on the curriculum for Religious Education, the Catholic Preschool and Primary Religious Education Curriculum for Ireland (2015), which has been approved by the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference for use in the twenty-six dioceses of Ireland. It also answers the requirement of the core syllabus for Religious Education (Department of Education Northern Ireland, 2007). Teachers in hundreds of schools provide feedback on the design, layout and content of the Grow in Love programmes as they are developed each year.

WEEKLY LESSONS

There are two pages to accompany each week's lesson in the Grow in Love Children's Book from Junior Infants/P1 to Second Class/P4. These activity books are designed to engage both children and their families. Each week, it is intended that one page in the Children's Book be worked on in school and the second page at home. In Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Classes (P5, P6 and P7), the Children's Books are in textbook format. In Third and Fourth Classes, there are three pages each week, two pages for school and one for home. In Fifth and Sixth Classes, there are four pages each week, three pages for school and one for home. Activities are designed to reinforce learning and to engage both children and their families.

WORK AT HOME

We strongly believe that if we want families to be involved in their children's religious education, we have to give them concrete opportunities to engage in suitable activities together. By sending home a piece of work, a prayer, a Bible story, something to read together and a topic to chat about each week, we are communicating to parents and families that their role in their child's religious education is vital from the very first day their child starts in a Catholic school.

IN THE PARISH

Connecting Home, School and Parish

Parents' Page

Welcome to the Grow in Love parish newsletter, a resource designed especially for families whose children are preparing to receive the sacraments of Reconciliation (Penance/Confession) and Eucharist (Holy Communion). This month we invite you to prepare for the sacraments for your home, school and parish to work together. This year we invite you to enter into this preparation with the following:

At Home: You are your child's first and most important teacher, and your support and example are vital... love and care.

In Parish: welcome, the community celebrates know that understanding, celebrating.

At School: she will's and learn programs ask your Love. The love where ye child, so together Catholic comes & welcome Holy Co

This Month's Focus: The Church

The church is a special place because it is where members of the family of the Church gather together to pray and celebrate Mass. There are special things in the church that help us to remember Jesus and the time when he is quiet and does some of these things:

- Look at the stained-glass windows. Try to work out what they show.
- Visit the tabernacle. Ask your family to tell you about the day you were baptised.
- Look at the statue. How many of the people do you recognise?
- With help from a grown-up, light a candle and say a prayer at the Stations of the Cross and talk about the story of Jesus' death.
- We can also find a confessional or reconciliation room. This might be where you will celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
- What else do you see? A pulpit, organ, choir, altar, crucifix, book or pectoral in front of the tabernacle? All of these things are very special parts of the church!

Match the words to the items to label the things you can see in the church. See if you can find each of these things in your own church. Tick the box when you do.

Grow in Love has always sought to build links between home and school. Parents have been engaging with their children by using the 'At Home' page in the Grow in Love textbooks. The 'At Home' page provides a prayer, a piece of work for parents and children to do together and something to chat about each week, all linked with what the children are doing in school.

Children and their families are also part of a much wider community of faith: the parish community. Grow in Love: In the Parish is an attempt to facilitate the partnership between home, school and parish. Grow in Love: In the Parish encourages parents and children to come together in the parish setting during the children's First Communion year, along with the parish community to continue the preparation that is taking place in schools.

IT HAS THREE ELEMENTS:

1. A series of liturgically based initiatives

The aim of these is to help families with young children to feel a greater sense of belonging to the parish community, and to find their place in the ordinary Sunday Mass, both in the year of sacramental preparation and beyond.

2. A series of newsletters

The newsletters, which link with the school-based Grow in Love programme, are distributed on a monthly basis to families. Ideally, this should be done in a parish context – for example, at a monthly family Mass.

3. Speaking notes

Each month, speaking notes are offered for the priest, together with a sample Prayer of the Faithful. The speaking notes draw attention to the key features of the newsletter for that month, and the Prayer of the Faithful picks up on the theme for that month.

The sacraments are events in the life of the Christian community, not just in the life of the individual. Parish communities will therefore benefit from sharing in the sacramental preparation and celebration with home and school.

We hope these newsletters will be a source of information and inspiration to parents/guardians, and will serve to strengthen the engagement of children and their families in the life of the Church.

THE COUNCIL FOR CATECHETICS OF THE IRISH EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE

While the majority of Catholic parents choose a Catholic primary school for their children, a significant number of families, for a variety of reasons, send their children to schools that are not under Catholic patronage. Children who attend non-Catholic schools do not receive formal religious education during the school day and so the local parish must take responsibility for supporting their parents in nourishing and developing the faith formation and catechesis of their children.

Meditation with Children*A Resource for Teachers and Parents*

DR NOEL KEATING

Children today are living in a fast-paced world where one solitary voice can easily get lost amid the din. Regular meditation helps children to relax, generate energy and confidence, become aware of their innate goodness and engage more compassionately with their peers.

This book is a helpful guide to Christian meditation for children. It encourages adults to experience meditation for themselves and equips them with the tools to introduce the practice to children, including simple lesson plans that can be implemented at home, in the classroom or on a whole-school basis.

A Reflection on Mindfulness: Rediscovering the Christian Tradition of Meditation and Contemplation

THE COUNCIL FOR CATECHETICS OF THE IRISH EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE

Over the last ten years, the practice of mindfulness has become ever more popular in Ireland and many teachers have taken to using various mindfulness and meditation techniques with children in schools. The Council for Catechetics of the Irish Episcopal Conference has produced this short document to help teachers to evaluate the contemporary practice of mindfulness. In doing so, it hopes to help people appreciate various spiritual and meditative practices found in the Christian tradition and to understand what distinguishes the Christian practices of prayer, meditation and contemplation from the secular practice of mindfulness.

Fadó Irish Saints Series and Fadó Irish Legend Series

DECLAN COLLINGE

These four bilingual books (Irish and English) on the stories of our four most famous Irish saints will fascinate and enthrall young readers while also encouraging an appreciation of the Irish language. These durable hard-cover books are perfectly designed for young readers and are written in clear, age-appropriate language in both Irish and English. Beautifully illustrated by Irish artist Nicola Sedgwick, each book features full-colour illustrations to encourage visual stimulation and stir the imagination.

Recommended reading age: 8–12 years old.

Fadó Irish Saints Series

The series is comprised of four fascinating stories – Saint Patrick of Ireland, Saint Brigid of Kildare, Saint Brendan the Navigator and Saint Kevin of Glendalough – and aims to introduce young readers to the life-long joy of reading in both the Irish and English languages.

Starchaser

JACINTHA MULLINS

Starchaser is a children's picture book that aims to support children who are experiencing grief, whether it be from the loss of a pet, parent, grandparent, sibling or friend. Death pops in and out of life and sometimes quite unexpectedly. Regardless of our age or life experience, we are never quite ready for its appearance.

The Starchaser comes from a magical place at the other side of the sky called the Big Beyond. She travels in the trails of the night's falling stars to reach earth. Leaving earth is not easy for those who have to go or indeed those who are left behind but the Starchaser has a few tricks up her sleeve to help us with all that.

'Starchaser's travels through the sky offer a child a sense of being held by something greater and bigger than their loss. The book gently concludes that life goes on, and their loved ones will live on in their memories. This is a beautiful book which is sure to provide comfort and hope to children who have experienced bereavement. It is a wonderful resource for teachers, therapists and families to help children navigate their unique and individual grief journey.'

Theresa Kavanagh, senior support worker, Children's Grief Centre, Limerick

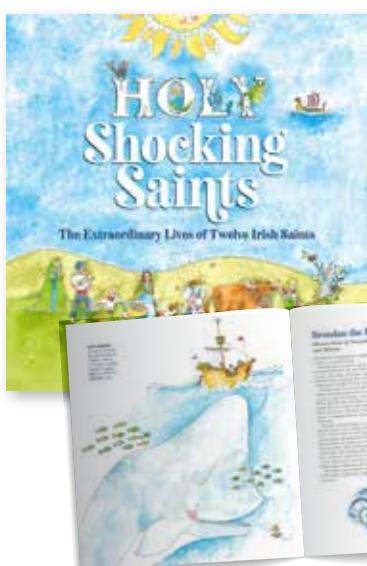

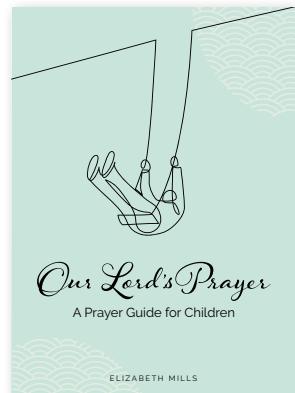

Our Lord's Prayer: A Prayer Guide for Children

ELIZABETH MILLS

This informative and enlightening prayer guide for children offers a fresh perspective on the familiar words of Our Lord's Prayer. Through clear and simple language, it leads children to consider what God is saying to us through each line of the prayer and what that means for us in our daily lives. It encourages an imaginative and open-hearted approach to faith that will support children in their future faith development.

This little book could be used in children's liturgy or when praying together quietly at home. Throughout the book, there is a clear message of love and reassurance that could speak to a child of any age.

Holy Shocking Saints

SÍNE QUINN AND MARGARETT ANNE SUGGS

Holy Shocking Saints is a beautifully illustrated book celebrating the extraordinary lives of twelve remarkable people. Whether mystics, healers or holy people, their strong belief was the catalyst that set them on the spiritual path. Some renounced wealth, position and marriage proposals; others had a burning desire to explore the world to teach about their faith.

From Colmcille confronting the Loch Ness Monster, to Brendan setting sail across the Atlantic, to Lí Ban transforming into a mermaid for three hundred years, whether fact or fiction this collection of stories will delight and entertain readers from ages seven and up.

SOUL SEEKERS

Introducing Soul Seekers, the new series for Junior Cycle from Veritas.

Soul Seekers is a new series by Veritas, for Junior Cycle Religious Education, which fulfils the requirements of the new specifications for Junior Cycle from the NCCA. The series has been written in consultation with teachers from across the country and provides opportunities for students to engage with the key skills outlined in the specifications, thereby equipping them for lifelong learning.

e-books
Each Soul Seekers textbook comes with a free e-book download.

SOUL SEEKERS

- Follows the NCCA specifications
- Supports school ethos and vision
- Is inclusive of diverse faith traditions
- Is written in student-friendly language
- Supports online learning
- Is approved by the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference

SOUL SEEKERS empowers students to be involved in student-centred learning, enables them to engage in research and encourages them to work independently as well as with others.

SOUL SEEKERS enables students to acquire real-life skills through engagement with a variety of materials supported by a wealth of resources on our digital platform.

SOUL SEEKERS uses the three elements, enquiry, exploration and reflection and action, to lead students through a process that is rooted in the philosophy of the NCCA specifications.

The teacher resources for the transition year programme is structured around PowerPoint slides, which may be displayed for students to view on the class whiteboard. Instructional notes for the teacher are included as presenter notes, which the teacher may view in the panel at the bottom of the teacher's own screen. The presenter notes that accompany the title slide of each lesson describe or list the lesson aim, learning outcomes, key concepts, glossary terms, teaching strategies, assessment methods, and any resources/materials that will be required. The remaining presenter notes provide commentary and questions on each slide, suggestions for activities and exercises, as well as instructions relating to relevant worksheets in the student journal. Web links to videos, music and other resources are embedded on the slides. The presenter notes also contain Bible stories, prayers and other resources for the guided prayer reflections that are offered at the close of lessons.

The Lighthouse Programme is a religious faith development programme undertaken voluntarily by Transition Year or Fifth Year students – ‘Lighthouse leaders’ – and sixth class pupils who will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. Comprising a leadership training module and a peer ministry module, the programme invites the older students to become actively involved in leading catechesis for Confirmation.

Taking the Faith Friends programme as its inspiration, this programme comprises eight to ten sessions of Christian leadership training for the Transition Year/Fifth Year students, followed by five peer ministry sessions with the Sixth Class Confirmation pupils of participating primary schools led by the newly trained Lighthouse leaders.

In all, the programme takes a recommended fifteen school weeks. Those who will be involved include students, teachers, secretaries, caretakers and management in the primary and secondary schools, boards of management, chaplains and parish priests.

The Lighthouse Programme issues a proposal to those who wish to seek and to develop their faith by sharing it with others, and in so doing to open themselves, by the grace of God, to strengthening it.

A basic tenet of learning theory is that people learn by doing, and so it is important that the student leaders not only learn about leadership but that they also perform leadership tasks. For a faith development programme to achieve its aim, it is imperative that the adolescent participants lead in religious faith. This means that the senior students spend time exploring and articulating their own understanding and experience of faith. They in turn lead the Sixth Class pupils in articulating their own religious faith from a position of religious faith.

The Self-Care Squad Journal

AMY CLAIRE FORD

Colourful and easy-to-use, The Self-Care Squad Journal fosters self-care, mindfulness, empowerment, body pride, resilience and self-awareness in young people, encouraging them to be open-minded, compassionate and mindful of their uniqueness and the uniqueness of others.

In a world of constant escapism, this journal encourages young people to use their talents and skills, to discover who they really are beyond external distractions, and to believe in themselves. The journal will bring more balance and clarity to the reader's life through awareness, mindfulness, self-exploration and self-care.

Employing techniques such as mindfulness, gratitude-journaling, goal-setting maps, art therapy and affirmations, The Self-Care Squad Journal gives the reader their own personal space to gently increase awareness of their thoughts and beliefs, to explore their feelings and to learn how to keep their mind healthy by feeding it with good thoughts.

Soul Fuel for Young Explorers

BEAR GRYLLS

TV star, former SAS soldier, Guinness World Record holder, author and the first ever Chief Ambassador to World Scouting, Bear Grylls is an inspiration for youngsters who want to make the most of life's adventures. In his recent bestseller Soul Fuel, Bear revealed for the first time the inspiration that helps him to stand strong and find peace each day. Now Soul Fuel for Young Explorers takes his message and inspires children and young people to find courage and confidence in this source too.

Bear offers seventy reflections along with stories from his own life – brilliantly illustrated by Patrick Laurent – making it a vibrant and engaging devotional for young readers.

Laudato Si'

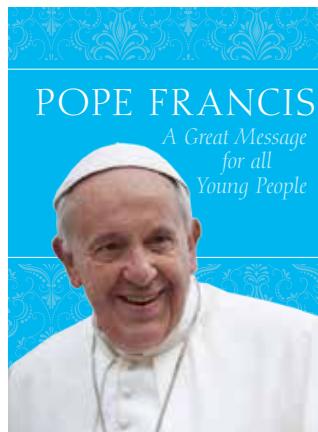

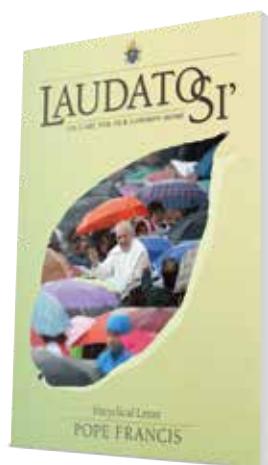

POPE FRANCIS

Considered both a powerful and controversial document, in Laudato Si', Pope Francis urges people to work in solidarity to reduce the impact of climate change, which he claims is partly due to human activity. He denounces the destruction of the earth's natural resources by the rich and powerful (both economically and politically) as 'sinful' and states that developed nations are morally obligated to assist developing nations in combating the climate-change crisis.

Laudato Si', mi Signore – Praise be to you, my Lord.

'Praise be to you, my Lord, through our Sister, Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with coloured flowers and herbs.'

'Dear young people, make the most of these years of youth. Don't observe life from a balcony. Don't confuse happiness with an armchair, or live your life behind a screen ... Give yourselves over to the best of life! Open the door of the cage, go out and fly.'

Pope Francis: A Great Message for All People

In his recently published document Christus Vivit (Christ is Alive), Pope Francis shared an important message with young people the world over: 'Christ is alive and he wants you to be alive! He is in you, he is with you and he never abandons you.'

This booklet contains the text of 'A Great Message for all Young People', one the most important chapters from Christus Vivit, alongside a selection of extracts from the remainder of that special document which specifically address young people with words of consolation, hope and a heartfelt plea to live out the message of Christ in every facet of their earthly lives.

The Cry Of The Earth – The Cry Of The Poor The Climate Catastrophe – Creation's Urgent Call for Change

ARCHBISHOP DERMOT FARRELL

In our age we are confronted with two interconnected crises: the coronavirus pandemic and the ecological crisis. Both require urgent action, but they also require a sense of purpose which comes from a clear vision.

This pastoral letter is not an attempt to replace what scientists, civic leaders or various climate movements are saying, but instead seeks to engage a further dimension, and approaches the climate catastrophe from the conviction of faith: this means facing the crisis with a deep sense of reality and a profound sense of hope. 'Faith is not a light which scatters all our darkness, but a lamp which guides our steps in the night and suffices for the journey' (Lumen Fidei, 57). It therefore means daring to look at the crisis from another perspective: the perspective of God. Looking at our planet from the perspective of the Creator permits us to see things from beyond, as it were. This pastoral letter is addressed in a particular way to people of faith in the Archdiocese of Dublin.

It is a word of encouragement and a call to action in the face of something that threatens every aspect of our lives today and into the future. It asks how we follow Jesus in this unprecedented crisis. How do we live our faith in this new time? How do we pray, and what difference does prayer make? What is God saying to the world? What is the Spirit saying to the churches?

FaithConnect – The Website

www.faithconnect.ie

An interactive religious education programme for Transition Year, Fifth Year and Sixth Year students. It is a joint initiative between a team from Veritas and the Mater Dei Institute of Education, led by Orla Walsh and Enda Donlon, that showcases the power of the increasing use of technology in religious education.

Schools can purchase a licence to gain access to the website. This allows all teachers in the school to use the resources and project the content. A student account provides access to the FaithConnect body of content, a personal profile page, online workbook, journal and blog (an option that the teacher can activate). This licence is valid for the school year and the website can be accessed as many times as a student wishes from any computer.

Contact publications@veritas.ie to arrange free access to these online resources.

FaithConnect: The Search for Meaning Textbook

ORLA WALSH

FaithConnect: The Search for Meaning is also available as a textbook, based on Section A of the Curriculum Framework for Senior Cycle Religious Education. The same content is covered in the book as online so the resources complement each other or can be used separately.
